

Airport Master Plan Initial Public Meeting

Martha's Vineyard Airport is hosting a community-wide public meeting to discuss the upcoming Master Plan study and to engage residents, businesses, airport users and others about the Master Plan process.

WHERE:

Martha's Vineyard Regional High School auditorium
100 Edgartown-Vineyard Haven Rd., Oak Bluffs

WHEN:

Thursday, Dec. 6, 2012, 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.

PRELIMINARY AGENDA:

- Update on Airport activities and recent safety improvements
- Introduction to the Airport Master Plan process, goals and schedule
- Discussion of Airport opportunities and constraints
- Open discussion/questions and answers

Everyone is welcome to attend. Those unable to go to the meeting may view the computer presentation on the Airport website, www.mvyairport.com (in the About MVY tab) and leave comments and/or suggestions for the Master Plan.

The auditorium is accessible to people with disabilities. The Airport provides reasonable accommodations and/or language assistance upon request (including but not limited to interpreters in American Sign Language and languages other than English). For accommodation or language assistance, please contact Kim Elias at (508)693-7022 ext. 200 or by fax (508) 696-4631 or by email to k Elias@mvyairport.com. Requests should be made as soon as possible before the meeting, preferably one week in advance.

In case of inclement weather, see the Martha's Vineyard Airport website, www.mvyairport.com for cancellation announcements.
